Library2go

eBooks and Audiobooks to Download

Penticton Library card holders have access to thousands of popular fiction and non-fiction eBooks and audiobooks for adults, young adults and children. Items can be downloaded on to eReaders, tablets, apple products, personal computers and other compatible devices.

Your device will need to be set up prior to downloading. For step-by-step instructions on setting up your eReader, go to the Getting Started section on the OverDrive help page. (help.overdrive.com)

With an active Penticton Public Library card you can borrow up to 5 items for a maximum of 3 weeks. Three days before the due date the option to renew an item will appear in your Library2go account. However, if there are holds you will not be able to renew the item(s). At the end of the loan period titles are automatically returned. No late fees! If a title is not available, you can place a hold and you will be emailed when it is available.

For more information, see the OverDrive help page for articles and videos on borrowing, placing holds and returning titles before the due date.

You can access Library2go from anywhere in the world as long as you have an Internet connection and your active library card. Never run out of books while traveling again!

ADULT PROGRAMS

Around the World and Beyond Book Club

Join us Monday May 26, 1:00-2:30 pm in the Penticton Public Library auditorium for a discussion of the book The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry by Rachel Joyce.

Recently retired, sweet, emotionally numb Harold Fry is jolted out of his passivity by a letter from Queenie Hennessy, an old friend, who he hasn't heard from in twenty years. She has written to say she is in hospice and wanted to say goodbye. Leaving his tense, bitter wife Maureen to her chores, Harold intends a quick walk to the corner mailbox to post his reply but instead, inspired by a chance encounter, he becomes convinced he must deliver his message in person to Queenie—who is 600 miles away—because as long as he keeps walking, Harold believes that Queenie will not die. So without hiking boots, rain gear, map or cell phone, one of the most endearing characters in current fiction begins his unlikely pilgrimage across the English countryside. Along the way, strangers stir up memories—flashbacks, often painful, from when his marriage was filled with promise and then not, of his inadequacy as a father, and of his shortcomings as a husband. Ironically, his wife Maureen, shocked by her husband's sudden absence, begins to long for his presence. Is it possible for Harold and Maureen to bridge the distance between them? And will Queenie be alive to see Harold arrive at her door? (from Amazon.ca)

These books may be borrowed from the Library but copies are limited. Please check the catalogue for availability. You can request a copy if necessary. Additional copies of some titles are available in Book Club sets (please contact Karen Kellerman, Public Services Librarian, at 250-770-7786 for assistance.)
