Around the World and Beyond Book Club

Mondays from 1:00 - 2:30 pm

April 27: The Girl Who Saved the King of Sweden by Jonas Jonasson

Jonasson, author of "The 100 Year Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Disappeared" introduces us to a cast of eccentrics: a nerve-damaged American Vietnam deserter, twin brothers who are officially only one person, three careless Chinese girls, an angry young woman, a potato growing baroness, the Swedish King and the prime minister. Quirky and utterly unique, "The Girl Who Saved the King of Sweden" is a charming and humorous account of one woman's unlikely adventure.

May 25: The Hotel on the Corner of Bitter & Sweet by Jamie Ford

When artifacts from Japanese families sent to internment camps during World War II are uncovered during renovations at a Seattle Hotel, Henry Lee embarks on a quest that leads to memories of growing up Chinese in a city rife with anti-Japanese sentiment.

June 29: The Storied Life of A.J. Fikry by Gabrielle Zevin

A. J. Fikry, the irascible owner of Island Books, has recently endured some tough years: his wife has died, his bookstore is experiencing the worst sales in its history, and his prized possession — a rare edition of Poe poems — has been stolen. Over time, he has given up on people, and even the books in his store, instead of offering solace, are yet another reminder of a world that is changing too rapidly until a most unexpected occurrence gives him the chance to make his life over and see things anew.

SPOTLIGHT ON...

Spring Cleaning

Spring is here! The flowers are starting to bloom, the trees are budding, the birds are singing and the bees buzzing. It's that time of year when we throw open the windows and take a good look around after our winter hibernation.

For many of us, this leads to the sudden urge to clean and purge: Spring Clean.

How can the library help you with this? No, we're not going to come to your place and clean for you. However, we do have books on cleaning (including natural or "green" cleaning) as well as some to help you organize and de-clutter your home.
