ADULTS

Eyes in the Forest The Portraiture of Jim Lawrence

This Kootenay-made short film by filmmaker Miriam Needoba offers a rare and stunning look into the world of well-known Kootenay wildlife photographer Jim Lawrence.

Tuesday November 17 at 6:00 pm

Learning at Lunch

Friday November 6: Sound Healing with ArLene Lamarche of Rejuvenation Plus

Come and learn some gentle and effective ways to increase the quality of your health, with the use of Sound & Vibrational tools and techniques that are easily used and highly beneficial for the quality of your daily life.

Friday November 20: Sojourns in the Emirates with Gerry Buzzell

The United Arab Emirates is an oasis of stability in a turbulent region of the Middle East. Gerry will speculate on why this is true, to a backdrop of photographs he took during his 10 years in this fascinating part of the world.

Friday December 4: The Amazing Honey Bee with Tim Bouwmeester

Come explore the amazing world of honey bees with a local beekeeper.

BC Author Elinor Florence

Saturday November 21, 4:00 pm
in the Library Reading Room

Bird's Eye View is a new, dramatic wartime novel; the only novel ever written featuring a Canadian woman in uniform as the main character. The heroine, Rose, joins the Royal Canadian Air Force, goes overseas to England, and becomes an interpreter of aerial photographs.

Elinor will present a highly-entertaining slide show of vintage photographs and share the research behind her novel. After the event she will sell and sign copies of her book. Feel free to wear your wartime vintage duds – Elinor will be in costume!

SPOTLIGHT ON...

Humbly Hosting the Holidays

Hosting a Christmas event this year? We can help!

Need help with cooking or baking ideas? Decorating or DIY projects? Or maybe just something funny to help with the stress? There's a book for that!
